Wyoming Standout Signs to Play Golf at Mesa State (Afton Balling Signs with Mavs)

Mesa State head women's golf coach Butch Miller has signed Afton Balling from Cody, Wyoming to a National Letter of Intent for the fall 2008 academic year.

Balling, a senior at Cody High School, led her team to their first state championship this fall. She took home the 3A state individual title and garnered All-State and All-Conference accolades.

A four-year letterwinner for the Fillies, Balling was also considering the University of Wyoming to pursue her collegiate career. After visiting the campus she made her decision official, signing Monday, November 19.

"We are excited and look forward to having Afton as a member of the team. Her work ethic, competitive experience and desire to improve every day will be a huge asset to our program" said head coach Butch Miller.
