FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Mesa State Volleyball

APRIL 27, 2007

Maggie Chlebana Named Assistant Volleyball Coach

Mesa State College Athletic Department and Women's Volleyball Head Coach Dave Fleming are proud to announce the hiring of Maggie Chlebana as the new Assistant Volleyball Coach. Chlebana replaces Jenny Hooker who resigned after 4- years of service with the volleyball program.

“We are excited to have Maggie on board,” said Coach Fleming, “She played volleyball at Baylor University and in the Big 12 which in one of the best volleyball conferences in the country. She brings a wealth of knowledge and enthusiasm to the program. She also has coaching in her blood, as both her mother and sister are full-time volleyball coaches. Maggie understands the effort it takes to be a good recruiter and a quality coach. Like Hooker, Maggie will train the setters and be the offensive coordinator. Maggie will go a long way in helping get this program to where I know it can go.”

Chlebana graduated from Baylor in December of 2006 with a degree in Psychology and has been living in Houston, TX. Along with her playing experience she has coached for three years at the club and high school level. She is originally from Canada and while in high school received an invitation to tryout with their Junior National Team as a setter.
